Filter and Sort Using Metadata in SharePoint

Filtering and sorting using metadata offers SharePoint users the ability to organize information without having to use several layers of folders.

1. Click on the arrow to the right of any metadata category.

2. Sort using these two options.

3. Filter using any combination of these options.

Note: Filtering may be used on many different categories simultaneously.

For an editable copy of this document, please contact Cristina Bean at cristina_bean@byu.edu.